LIBRARY RULES.

---

Note.—The Chaplain has charge of the Library. All matters relating thereto should be referred to him.

---

The Library is open to INMATES ONLY under the following rules:—

Rule 1.—First Grade may exchange books any morning.

Second Grade may exchange books Tuesdays and Saturdays.

Third Grade may exchange books Saturdays.

Rule 2.—Inmates must not exchange books with each other but return same to Library for re-issue.

Rule 3.—Each inmate is furnished a Library Catalogue and must carefully preserve it. He will be furnished with a card upon which he must keep written not less than ten call-numbers—the numbers printed in the right-hand column of the Catalogue. For example: "020 D19," calls for Dana's Library Primer; "R220 D29," calls for Davis' Bible Dictionary.

Rule 4.—The card, with book to be returned to Library, must be placed in cell door on the morning of the day allowed for exchange.

Rule 5.—No inmate may retain a book more than two weeks without the permission of the Chaplain.

Rule 6.—Books must be kept clean and returned in good condition. Any wilful tearing or marking of books will subject the offender to punishment.

Rule 7.—Application for Reference Books should be made in writing to the Chaplain. They must not be retained more than two days without permission.

MAGAZINE RULES.

Rule 1.—Each inmate is given a list of Current Magazines received and should mark the four he prefers to read. If possible these will be issued to him each month.

Rule 2.—Magazines may be retained two days only. Magazines, with card, must be returned on Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings. They should be placed in cell doors.

Rule 3.—Library Rule 6 also applies to Magazines.

MARQUIS BARR,
FELIX H. PICKWORTH, Warden.
Chaplain and Librarian.
